SPAIN DEMANDS THE RESTORATION OF THE VIRGINIUS.

SHE WAS NOT ENTITLED TO BEAR THE FLAG.

THE RING TRIALS.

LEASE OF THE WESTERN UNION.

Spain Demands the Restoration of the Virginus.

The Herald's special from Paris says a cipher despatch from Madrid announces that Spain demands the restoration of the Virginus, and that there was great excitement in consequence of Secretary Fish admitting that the Virginus was not entitled to carry the flag of the United States. The demand was made on Friday.

General Sickles has telegraphed to Washington insisting upon the acceptance of his resignation.

A similar special from Berlin asserts that the Emperor William has had a slight attack of apoplexy, which causes much anxiety. Efforts are being made to conceal his condition.

The Virginus' Right to Carry the United States Flag.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.

It has been known for some days that the Spanish government has furnished evidence with regard to the Virginus and her claim to the right to bear the flag of the United States, and that the President has submitted the evidence to the Attorney General for his opinion thereon. It seems to be understood in official circles that the vessel had forfeited the right to bear the flag of the United States, and at the time of her capture she was carrying it without the right, and improperly in view of the opinion of the Attorney General.

From Washington.

BUTLER ASSAILED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.

General Butler's speech on the salary bill, delivered on Wednesday night, in the House, in which he abused the press like a fish woman, calling the newspapers a "farty jackass mud pover," and also used several of his fellow members roughly, has not yet got into print. Butler persuaded the Associated Press not to report it, and withholds his remarks from the Congressional Record, intending probably, that a full report of what he said shall not be made public until it is generally forgotten.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA RAILWAY.

Special advices from Columbia, S. C., received at Washington, show that the so-called investigation into the purchase of votes in the Legislature, by Senator Patterson, of that state, was a farce, and that there can be no honest or fair inquiry into Patterson's corruption at that place. It is said that the trial justice before whom the case was heard was overawed. R. M. Smith testified that a few evenings before the election he met Patterson on the street, that Patterson told him he would give him (Smith) $300 for every conservative vote he could get for him, and he (Smith) replied, "Yes, and cheap at that," and then left Patterson. Dr. T. J. Moore testified that Worthington came into Patterson's house a few days after the election, and said that Senator J. M. Smith of Barnwell was raising the devil down the street, and that he must be settled, with, and that he (Moore) was sent after Senator Smith and carried him to Patterson's house and saw Patterson take a large roll of money out of his secretary and hand it to Worthington, who was in the next room with Senator Smith, and that he (the witness) was very sure, though he could not swear positively to the fact, that Worthington handed the money over to Senator Smith.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

It seems to be pretty generally expected that the nomination of Attorney-General Williams for chief justice will be either withdrawn or rejected. His friends on the Senate Judiciary committee feel that it is before the brief executive session of the Senate Friday, for the reason that a majority of the members of that committee were willing that it should be reported to the Senate, are not in favor of its confirmation. The intimations that are working against Williams continue to increase daily. Purely of all comes up a general protest from the entire bar of the country, and that is supplemented by charges of corruption and appeals to his fellow republicans in Congress to reject him. A very strong adverse influence is also working against Williams through several members of the Supreme Court, senators and members' families and other high officials. In the face of this it is now believed that the President's demand for Williams' confirmation will be hesitated. The Judiciary committee continues daily to secretly investigate the various charges made against Williams.

Testimony Against Oakley Hall.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.

The district attorney refuses to disclose the whereabouts of E. A. Woodward, who is in the city to give evidence in the ring trials. Negotiations between Woodward and the attorney general have been in progress for a month past. Woodward will be used as a witness during the trial of ex-Mayor Hall. It is stated that Woodward is prepared to furnish all the missing links of the chain of testimony, and that his confession will be especially valuable as giving information regarding the division of the plunder. It is further alleged that he will implicate persons against whom no proof of crime has heretofore been developed.

MEXICAN POLICE—A Fight.

MATAMORAS, Dec. 21.

At any early hour this morning the streets were thronged with partisans of General Cortinas and Camales, rival candidates for Mayor. Several hundred men headed by a band of music concentrated on the plaza in front of the City Hall, where a return judge was to meet to count votes and about twelve o'clock the present Mayor attempted to leave City Hall with the return without announcing the result, when a general fight ensued in which several hundred shots were fired, wounding the Mayor and six policemen.

Eight of Cortinas' band were carried off badly wounded. The government troops were several hundred strong, under Col. Cresti, entered the plaza and planted several pieces of artillery covering the square, when the combatants retired towards the outskirts of the city. The federal troops now hold the plaza and the streets now quiet. Another attack is anticipated to-night, against which every precaution is being taken.

It is reported from Cerralto that A. M. Lenders, a prominent merchant of Rio Grande city, has been robbed and murdered on his return from the interior of Mexico.

The Spanish and British Complication.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.

The Times Key West special, dated 20th, says—"It is rumored that serious complications in regard to Cuba have arisen between the Spanish and British governments, precisely what does not yet appear, but it is certain that the British West India squadron is to be speedily and largely increased. The Havana authorities, P. is stated, consider that the English government intends some interference in Cuban affairs, and in such a manner as to complicate the relations of this Government with Spain.

Admiral Scott looks for the arrival of the European squadron in a few days when Admiral Case, unless relieved, will assume command.

It is now looked upon as certain that the salute to our flag as required by the terms of the protocol, will be made in as informal a manner as possible.

The feeling among the officers of the squadron here is one of much dissatisfaction.

The Virginus passed here yesterday to the north and anchoring off the Osipen in a leaky condition.
